

Naming body parts

Print out large versions of these (gender neutral) paper pants and place them over the body pictures.

Explain that these are parts of our bodies like any other but that they are our private and personal body parts that need to stay in our underwear.

