Policy review Autumn 2022

Headteacher: _____ Date: _____

Introduction

Hamstel Infant School and Nursery has reviewed and developed their school uniform policy. It should be read alongside the statutory guidance on the cost of school uniforms.

This policy is to ensure that we comply with our obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998 and the Equality Act 2010.

The term 'governing board' in this guidance refers to the board of trustees for an academy trust.

Throughout this guidance, 'parents' should be taken to include all those with parental responsibility, including guardians and carers.

Our policy on school uniform

It is for the school to decide:

- rules around appearance
- whether there should be a school uniform policy and if so, what that should be
- how the uniform should be sourced

These duties are placed upon all governing boards by statute to ensure that school policies promote good behaviour and discipline amongst the pupil body.

We strongly encourage the wearing of uniform as it can play a key role in:

- promoting the ethos of a school
- providing a sense of belonging and identity
- setting an appropriate tone for education

Requirements for governing boards

Hamstel Infant School and Nursery will ensure that in developing and implementing their uniform policy, they comply with the Human Rights Act 1998 and Equality Act 2010 and take into account key considerations such as safeguarding requirements and the health and safety of their pupils.

To help us meet these requirements, we have considered the views of parents and pupils when making any significant changes.

We have considered how the introduction of the proposed uniform policy might affect groups represented in the school, especially those who share protected characteristics as defined by the Equality Act 2010

We have considered how comfortable the proposed uniform will be for our young pupils and will take a sensible approach to allow for exceptions to be made during extreme weather.

We will ensure that our uniform is suitable and safe for pupils who walk or cycle to school, for instance, by allowing pupils to wear a coat which they could be visible in when it is dark going home. We have chosen a PE kit which is practical, comfortable, appropriate to the activity involved and affordable.

Other factors to consider

Outside of their responsibilities to comply with all relevant legislation, we have considered other relevant factors. For instance, manufacturing items of clothing can have a significant impact on the environment and in response will be able to offer second hand items to support this.

We have considered the environmental impact of our uniform and have considered how any branded items if they choose to have them, are sourced.

Reviewing your policy

We will review our policy at appropriate intervals to ensure that it is still fit for purpose.

Reviewing a policy does not necessarily have to result in changes being made.

Cost considerations

Buying a school uniform can be expensive and can place an unreasonable burden on families. Our uniform options have been considered so as not to be so expensive as to leave pupils or their families feeling unable to apply to, or attend, a school of their choice, due to the cost of the uniform.

We have given high priority to cost considerations. We have issued statutory guidance on the cost of school uniforms, to support us developing and implementing our uniform policy.

Human rights, equality and discrimination considerations

When making decisions about our uniform policy, we have regard to our obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998 and the Equality Act 2010. We have considered the impact of our policy on pupils who share a protected characteristic.

The relevant protected characteristics we have considered when developing and implementing our uniform policy include:

Gender, religion or belief, race (including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin), disability, gender reassignment.

We aim for our uniform policy to be as inclusive as possible, and have been considerate in the implementation of our uniform policy so that all pupils are able to wear the uniform.

Religion or beliefs

Some religions and beliefs require their members to conform to a particular dress code or to otherwise outwardly manifest their belief. We ensure we are sensitive to the needs of different cultures, races and religions and act reasonably in accommodating these needs, without compromising important school policies, such as school safety or discipline. It should be possible for most religious requirements to be met within our school uniform policy and we will act reasonably through consultation and dialogue in accommodating these.

Discrimination

In developing and implementing our school uniform policy, we have considered our obligations not to discriminate unlawfully. For example, whilst we can designate different uniform requirements for boys and girls, girls' uniforms should not be significantly more expensive than boys' or vice-versa, as this may constitute unlawful sex discrimination.

Even when this policy has been agreed, we will be willing to allow for some individual variations to their uniform policy, where necessary to avoid indirect discrimination. For instance, reasonable adjustments must be made, as appropriate, for pupils with a disability.

Complaints and challenges to school uniform policy

Disputes about school uniforms should be resolved locally and should be pursued in accordance with the school's complaints policy. Parents should be able to lodge their complaints and objections easily. A school uniform should be inclusive, where the subject of a complaint is due to a pupil's protected characteristic, we will carefully consider requests to vary our uniform policy.

Pupil non-compliance

This will be carried out in accordance with the school's published behaviour policy.

We would expect to deal with pupil non-compliance in a proportionate and fair way.

School Uniform

We encourage a good standard of dress at all times and want children to represent the school positively. We ask all pupils to wear our school uniform as we feel this promotes a sense of belonging and identity and helps develop pride in the school.

Our Uniform:

We also ask that you provide a pair of wellies which will be kept in school.
